<sup>1</sup> Counts include undergraduate applicants who applied in the summer prior to the fall. Each student is only counted once, regardless of how many applications were completed. Only new applicants are counted; readmitted applicants are excluded. New enrollment counts in the "New Enrolled Students" table may be higher than admitted counts in the "New Applicants" table if some students were admitted in an earlier term, but did not enroll until a later term.

* Data suppressed in the "Average Faculty Age" table when the count is less than two.

<sup>1</sup> If a faculty member has multiple faculty positions across departments or colleges, each faculty member is only counted once at the university level profile and FTE is summed together. Since faculty overload positions are included, a faculty member's FTE may sum to greater than 1. If the FTE sums to .99 or greater, then the faculty member is reported as full-time even if both faculty positions were considered part-time. Faculty counts only include departmental faculty.

<sup>2</sup> While all other university level academic profiles exclude non-degree seeking undergraduate students, the "Student FTE to Faculty FTE Ratio," "Class Size Count," and "Class Size Average" tables include them. Additionally, while the class size tables are based on undergraduate level only classes, all students (i.e., graduate/undergraduate, degree seeking/non-degree seeking) who were enrolled in these classes are included.

<sup>1</sup> Students may be coded as first time in college second bachelors if they started at ISU as first time in college, left ISU and got a degree elsewhere, and then came back to finish the degree that they first started. A student is no longer considered first time in college once he or she finishes the degree at ISU or becomes a graduate student. Counts are only based on students who attempted credit towards their GPA.

<sup>2</sup> Fall 2014 retention rates do not include summer starters. As of fall 2015 summer starters are included.
