ILLINOIS STATE UNIVERSITY
Illinois' first public university

December 2013

Dear Colleague:

I am pleased to present the twenty-fifth annual FactBook prepared by the Planning, Research and Policy Analysis office. The FactBook contains a collection of useful information designed to answer frequently asked questions about Illinois State University -- Illinois' first public university.

Much has changed since Illinois State University opened its doors to students in 1857. The University first conferred undergraduate degrees in 1860, began offering master's degree programs in 1943 and introduced doctoral work in 1962. Currently, the University offers seventy-one undergraduate programs, forty-four master's programs, ten doctoral programs, a Specialist in School Psychology and nine graduate level certificates. In fiscal year 2013, the University conferred 5,235 degrees - 4,438 baccalaureates, 722 master's, 51 doctorates, and 24 certificates. A total of 20,272 students are enrolled this fall (On- and Off-Campus) - 87.6 percent of whom are enrolled in undergraduate programs.

While the University has undergone many changes, our core values have remained steadfast. These values - pursuit of learning and scholarship, individualized attention, diversity, integrity, and civic engagement - remain the foundation for everything we do. The goals articulated in the University's strategic plan, Educating Illinois emanate from these values, and collectively focus the institution on the actions necessary to be a national leader for educating high-achieving, motivated students who seek an individualized and transformative experience. Data provided in the FactBook show that the University is attracting academically prepared students, and that our students are continuing and completing their education at historic rates.

I encourage you to use this publication to familiarize yourself with the basic facts about Illinois State University. Data are presented at the University and College level; information by department and major is available on-line at www.prpa.ilstu.edu. Additional information on Educating Illinois is available at www.educatingillinois.ilstu.edu. If you have questions about the University or Educating Illinois, please contact the Planning, Research and Policy Analysis office by telephone at (309) 438-8393 or by e-mail at prpa@ilstu.edu.

Sincerely,

EDUCATING ILLINOIS 2013-2018: Individualized Attention, Shared Aspirations

Our Mission: We at Illinois State University work as a diverse community of scholars with a commitment to fostering a small-college atmosphere with large-university opportunities. We promote the highest academic standards in our teaching, scholarship, public service and the connections we build among them. We devote all of our resources and energies to creating the most supportive and productive community possible to serve the citizens of Illinois and beyond.

Our Vision: Illinois State University, a first-choice public university, will be increasingly recognized as a national leader for educating high-achieving, motivated students who seek an individualized and transformative experience at an institution that: Offers premier undergraduate and graduate programs that integrate traditional knowledge and methods with emerging ideas and innovations; Generates knowledge through high-quality research, scholarship, and creative activities; Supports student learning and development inside and outside of the classroom; Serves the region, state, nation, and world through its commitments to responsible stewardship, meaningful civic engagement, cultural enrichment, and the development of global citizens.

Our Values:

Pursuit of Learning and Scholarship: Illinois State University works with students as partners in their educational development inside and outside of the classroom, so that students come to appreciate learning as an active and lifelong process. The University contributes new knowledge through research, scholarship, and creative activities in which all students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to participate. Faculty members embrace a balanced teacher-scholar model that values their contributions as teachers (facilitators of learning) and scholars (creators and discoverers of knowledge and information).

Individualized Attention: Illinois State University provides a supportive environment that places all learners at the center of teaching and scholarship. Innovative curricular and cocurricular programs, strong student-faculty-staff connections, and superior student services focus on each student as an individual. The University fosters academic and personal growth, recognizes unique educational aspirations, and acknowledges that each faculty and staff member is integral to student success.

Diversity: Illinois State University affirms and encourages community and a respect for differences by fostering an inclusive environment characterized by cultural understanding, ethical behavior, and social justice. The University supports a diverse faculty and staff who mentor a diverse student population. The University endeavors to provide opportunities for all students, staff, and faculty to participate in a global society.

Integrity: Illinois State University promotes an environment defined by the highest ethical standards. Leadership of the University is characterized by stability, adherence to shared values, collaborative decision making, and accountable stewardship of all university resources. Members of the University community work collaboratively through shared governance to ensure the success of the University and are dedicated to making ongoing improvements, always enhancing their contribution to Illinois State University and building on prior accomplishments. Teaching and learning, including research and creative activities, are conducted at the highest level of academic quality and integrity.

Civic Engagement: Illinois State University prepares students to be informed and engaged global citizens who will promote and further the goals of society. The University promotes active learning experiences through which students will gain an awareness and understanding of civic engagement as a lifelong responsibility. The University partners with business, industry, government, and educational entities providing leadership in local, statewide, national, and international initiatives; expanding service and outreach; and enhancing financial support for instructional, scholarly, and service activities.

Timothy J. Flanagan was appointed 18th president of Illinois State University May 10, 2013. He began his service Aug. 15.

The former president of Framingham State University has a successful history in leading universities, including serving as provost and vice president for academic affairs and a professor of criminal justice at the College at Brockport, State University of New York.

Flanagan received his master's and Ph.D. in criminal justice from the University of Albany, State University of New York. He has done post-graduate work at the Graduate School of Education at Harvard University in Cambridge, Mass.

Flanagan's recent accomplishments include creating academic programs in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) education, nursing, environmental science, criminology, and an MBA program while at Framingham State University.

In his six-year tenure there, he also secured $175 million in capital investment and established record-setting levels of fundraising and private support. He launched the first comprehensive fundraising campaign in the university's history.

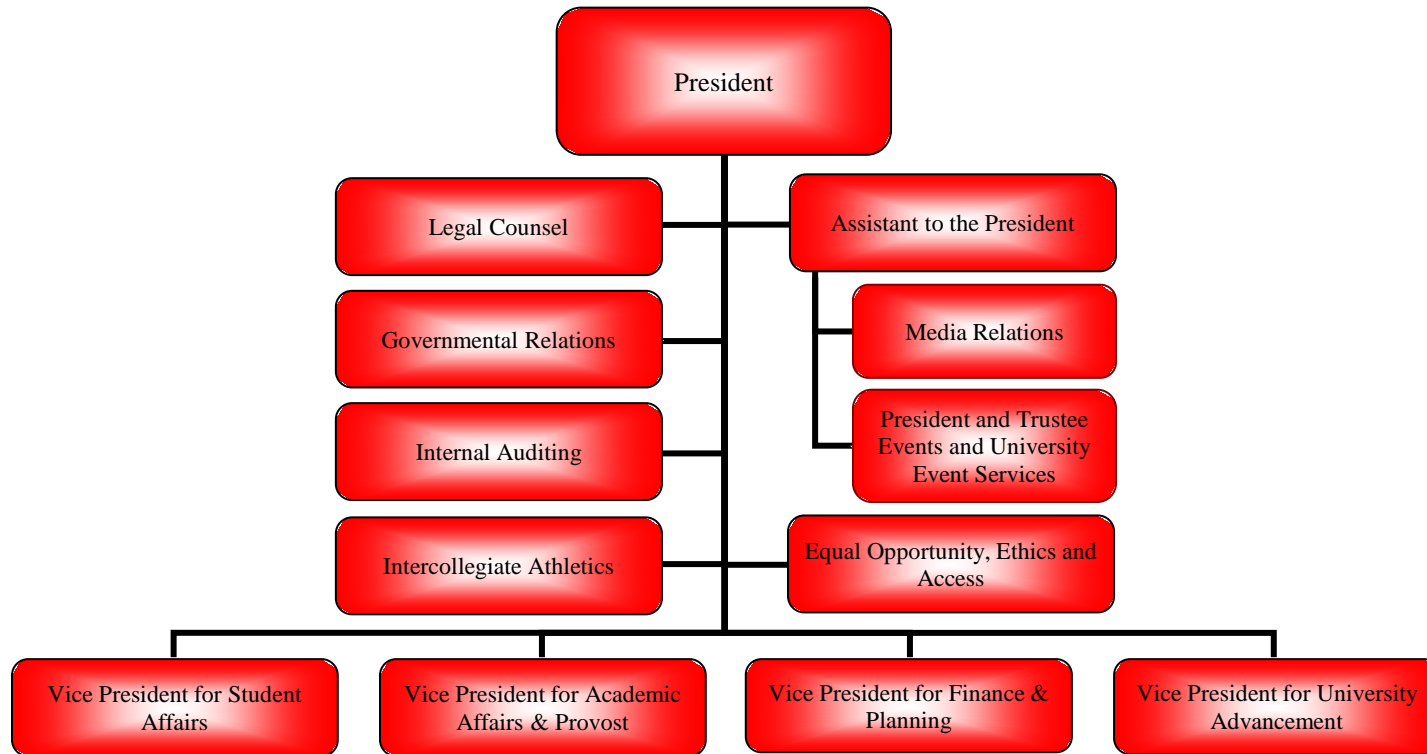

The president also served as a leader in a national effort to improve the transition of first-year students, Foundations of Excellence in the First Year of College. He has been active in creating partnerships between colleges, school districts and employers in the STEM fields, along with working on enhancing STEM teaching in grades K-12.

Prior to joining Framingham State, Flanagan served as dean in the College of Criminal Justice at Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, Texas. Under his leadership, enrollment increased by 20 percent and he quadrupled research and sponsored funds awarded to the college. He also collaborated on the development of a doctoral program in forensic psychology. Flanagan began his academic career as a criminal justice instructor at Marshall University in Huntington, W. Va.

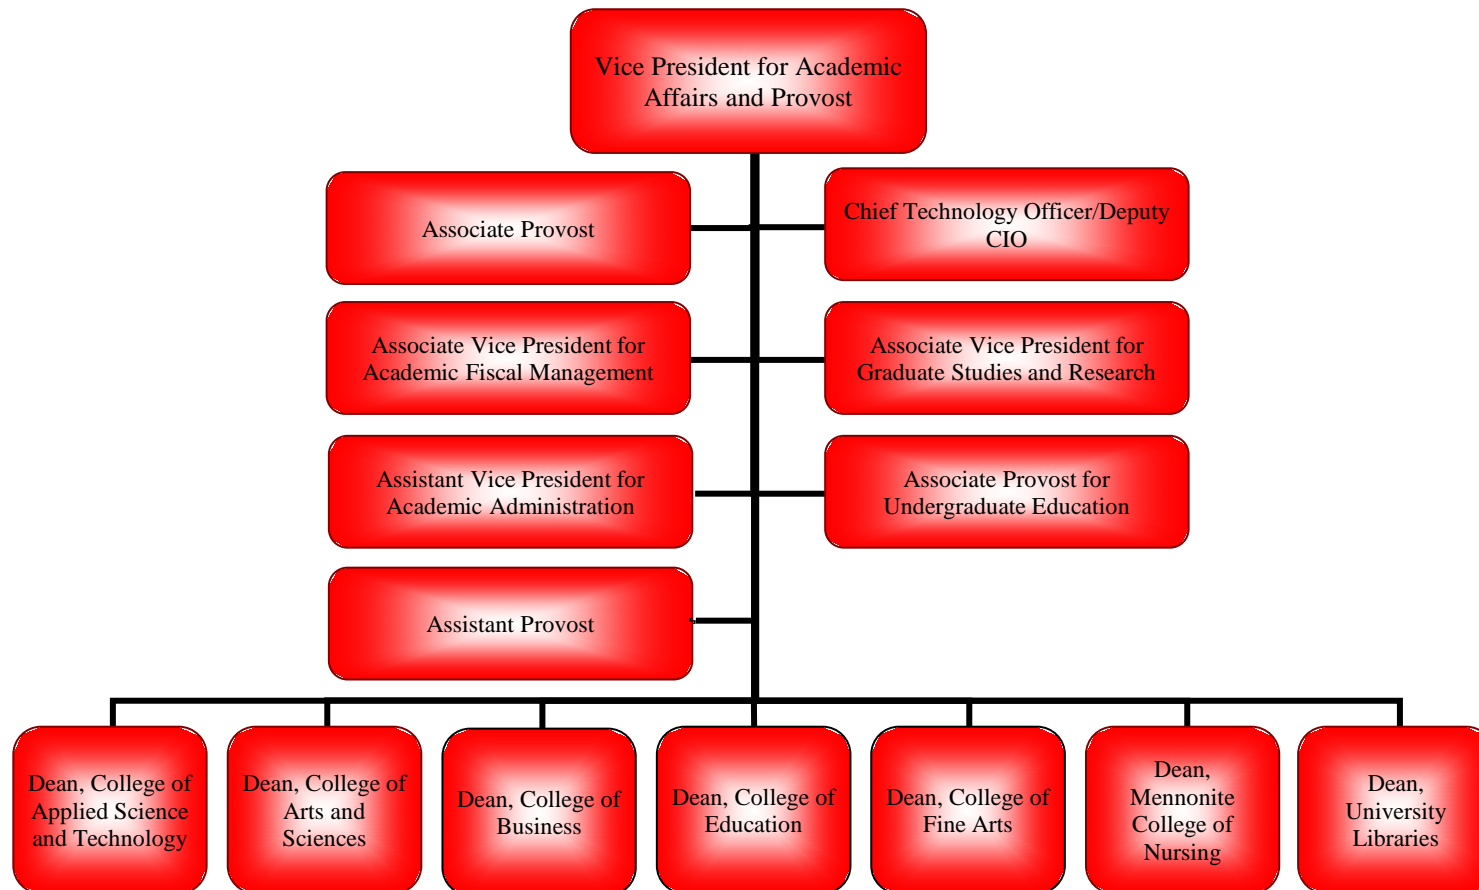

His awards include being ranked 11th among the most-cited authors in criminal justice journals; being chosen as a delegate to the White House Leadership Conference on Youth, drugs and Violence; being honored for outstanding contributions in the field of corrections in the United States and Canada by the American Probation and Parole Association; and receiving a Fellow Award for distinguished teaching and scholarly achievement from the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences.

Flanagan is active in the American Association of State Colleges and Universities, National Committee on Teacher Education; the National Collegiate Athletic Association, NCAA Committee on Women's Athletics and the American Council on Education, Council of Fellows; and the Massachusetts Department of Higher Education, Commissioner's Working Group on Graduation Rates and Student Success.

His wife, Nancy, holds a Ph.D. in nursing. They have two children and four grandchildren.

Sheri Noren Everts is the Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost at Illinois State University. Previously she served as Interim Senior Vice Chancellor for Academic and Student Affairs, acting Vice Chancellor, and Associate Vice Chancellor at the University of Nebraska at Omaha (UNO). Everts has co-authored two books, has published numerous articles, and made over 200 professional presentations on assessment and portfolios. She received her bachelor's degree in English and Secondary Education, master's degree in Literacy Education and English, and Ph.D. in Administration, Curriculum and Instruction from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

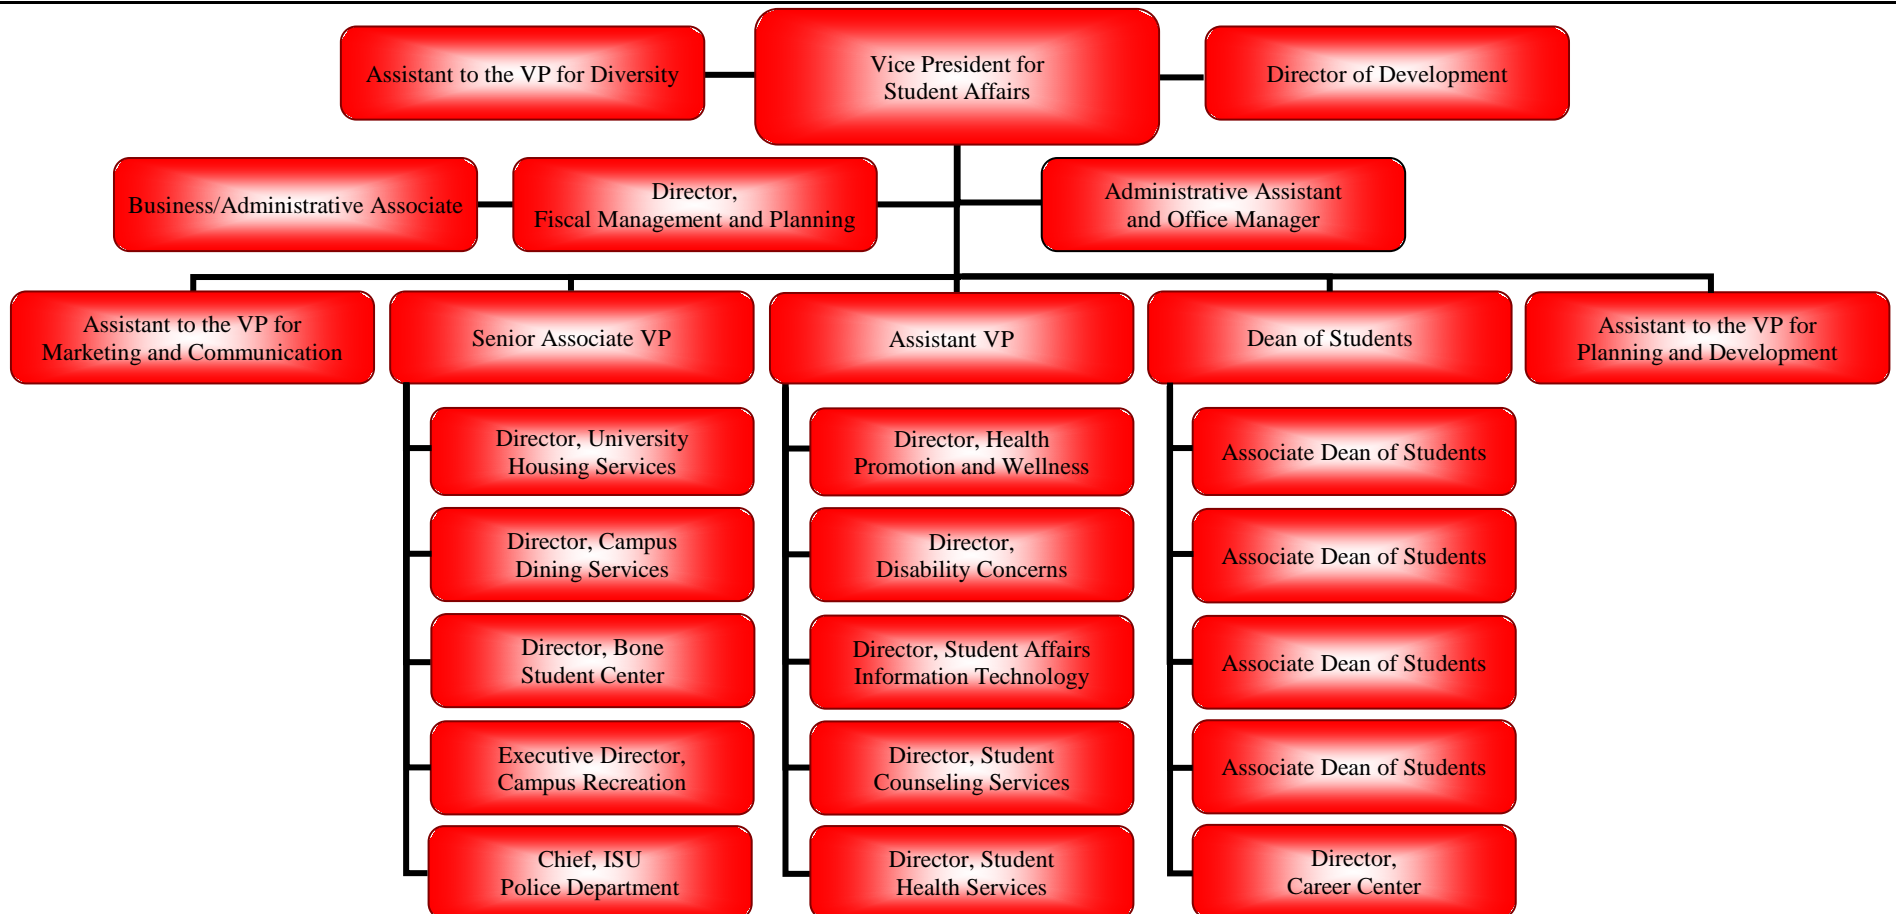

Department Chairpersons and School Directors report to the College Deans - see page 2.

Dan Layzell became Vice President for Finance and Planning at Illinois State University in September 2009. Immediately prior to joining the University, he served as Associate Vice President for Planning and Administration at the University of Illinois, he was formerly a Deputy Director of Planning and Budgeting for the Illinois Board of Higher Education. He also previously was a partner in the higher education practice of MGT of America, Inc., a consulting firm based in Tallahassee, Florida, director of policy analysis and research for the University of Wisconsin System, and a budget analyst for the Arizona Legislature. He has been an adjunct faculty member in the graduate higher education programs at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, Florida State University, and University of Wisconsin-Madison. Dr. Layzell has a Ph.D. in Higher Education from Florida State University, an A.M. in Labor and Industrial Relations from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, and a B.A. in Economics and Business Administration from Illinois College. He is the author or co-author of various articles, book chapters, monographs, and conference papers dealing with topics related to higher education finance, strategic planning, and public policy.

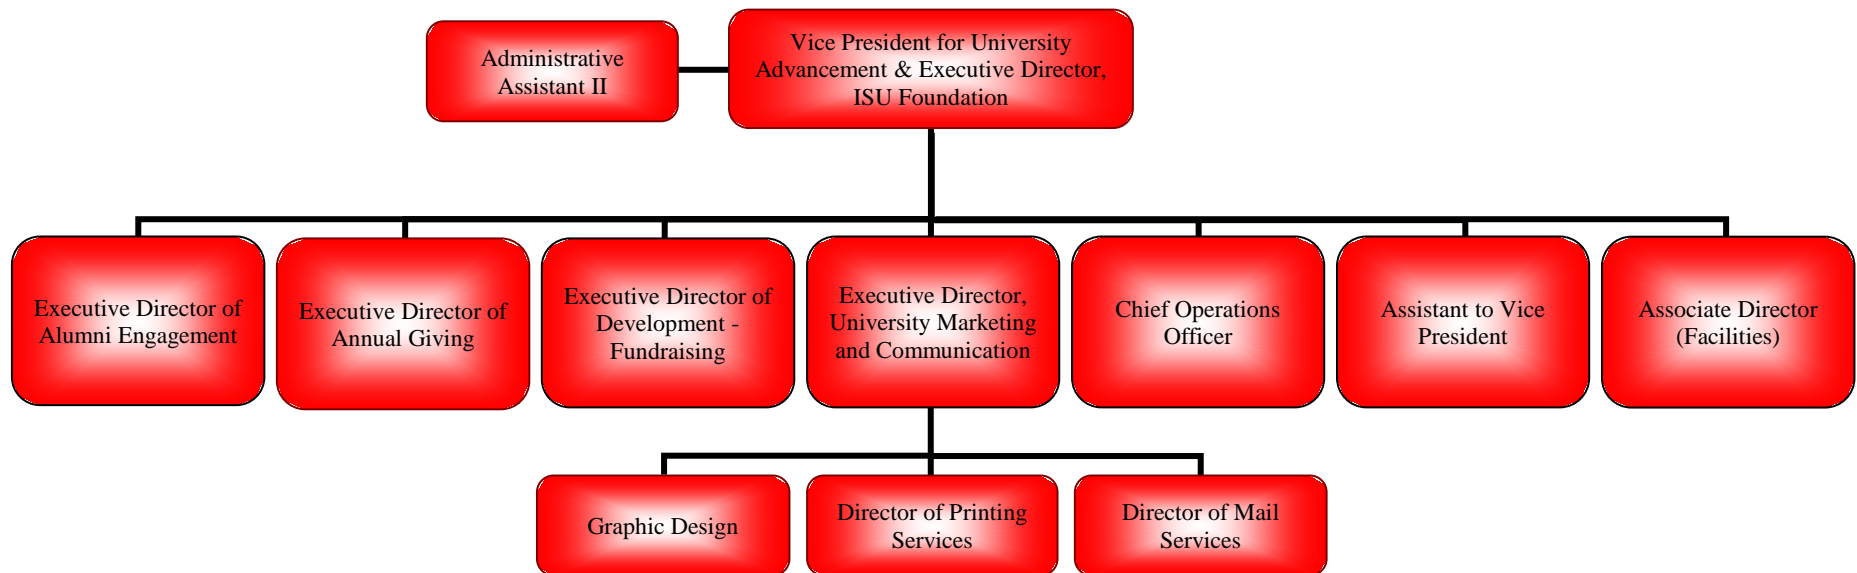

¹ Includes Facilities Planning and Construction Management, Facilities Management, Energy Management, and Environmental Health and Safety.

Larry Dietz became Vice President for Student Affairs and Associate Professor of Education Administration and Foundations on June 1, 2011. Dr. Dietz began his student affairs career at Southern Illinois University Carbondale (SIUC) in financial aid administration. He moved to Iowa State University and served in various roles in the offices of Student Financial Aid and the Vice President for Student Affairs. He was elected President of the Iowa Student Financial Aid Association, Commission Director of Governmental Affairs and a member of the Board of Directors of the National Association of Student Financial Aid Administration. Dr. Dietz has served as Assistant, Associate, and Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management at the University of Missouri – Kansas City and Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs at SIUC. He earned his bachelor’s degree at SIUC and his masters and doctorate degrees at Iowa State University. He has been honored by Iowa State’s College of Education as an “Outstanding Alumni”, by the Chamber of Commerce of Kansas City and the SIUC Board of Trustees for his community service, and by the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators (NASPA) and the American College Personnel Association for his outstanding contribution to the profession. He was also awarded a Fulbright Award to study in Germany, has completed management programs at Harvard University and was chosen to assist in developing the Iraqi Education Initiative. He currently serves on the Foundation Board of Directors of NASPA.

Erin Minné joined Illinois State in June 2010, coming to us from the University of Iowa where she served as the Vice President for Development of the University of Iowa Foundation. At Iowa, she managed a $500 million campaign for the academic medical center and provided oversight for campaigns for the colleges of Public Health and Dentistry. Erin received her bachelor's degree from Oakland University in Michigan and her master's degree from Saint Mary's University of Minnesota. She has also held positions at Michigan Technological University, Boylston of Michigan, American Cancer Society, and Orchard Children's Services.

STUDENT TERMS

Census Day: The University's official date for enrollment. The first day of class following the 10th day of class in each semester.

Certificates: Illinois State University currently offers three types of certificates at the graduate level:

- Graduate Certificate: Requires a minimum of nine but no more than 17 semester hours of graduate courses beyond the bachelor's degree. This type of certificate is not approved/reviewed by the Illinois Board of Higher Education (IBHE).
- Post-Baccalaureate Graduate Certificate: Requires a minimum of 18 semester hours of graduate courses beyond the baccalaureate degree, but less than required for a masters' degree. This type of certificate is approved/reviewed by the IBHE.
- Post-Master's Graduate Certificate: Requires a minimum of 24 semester hours of graduate courses beyond the master's degree but less than a doctoral degree. This type of certificate is approved/reviewed by the IBHE.

CIP Codes: Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) A federal coding system used to provide a taxonomic scheme that will support the accurate tracking, assessment, and reporting of fields of study and program completions activity.

Cohort: The number of new beginning freshmen in a given fall semester. Used in calculating retention of students returning for their second fall semester and in calculating University graduation rates.

Credit Hour: A standard unit of measuring course work; credit hours are assigned to a particular course and count toward graduation.

Degree Program: A program which has specific requirements and number of credits, including a common core for all students seeking a particular degree. Degree programs are approved through a curricular process through the Illinois Board of Higher Education.

Full-Time Enrollment: For undergraduate students – 12 or more credit hours; for graduate students nine or more credit hours per semester.

Full-Time Equivalent (FTE): Total number of credit hours divided by 15 for undergraduate students; and by nine for graduate students.

Grade Point Average (GPA): The total number of grade points divided by the total graded semester hours attempted at Illinois State University.

Graduation Rate: Total number of new beginning freshmen students who complete their degree within 6 years of normal time divided by the number in the original cohort.

Headcount: The count of each student enrolled at the University.

Interdisciplinary: A program or course that spans two or more academic disciplines.

Major or Program: A cohesive combination of courses, including introductory, intermediate, and advanced course work, that designates a student's primary area of specialization.

Minorities: Excludes White, Not Reported and Non-Resident Alien following IPEDS and the Department of Education categories.

Native Students: Students who start as new beginning freshmen at Illinois State University.

New Beginning Freshmen: First-time, first year students who have not attended any college since graduating from high school (includes students who attend a college or university the summer after high school graduation, students with advanced placement credits, and students who took courses for college credit while attending high school).

New Students: Students attending Illinois State University for the first time (Illinois State University baccalaureate recipients entering their first semester working on a second bachelor's degree are considered readmitted students).

Non-Degree Seeking: A student who has not been admitted to a program leading toward a degree; these include unclassified students, students-at-large, and students working toward a non-IBHE approved/reviewed graduate certificate.

Non-Resident: A student whose principal residence is not in Illinois.

Non-Resident Alien: International students who are neither a citizen nor a permanent resident of the United States.

STUDENT TERMS (CONTINUED)

On-and Off-Campus: Students are considered “off-campus” if all of their courses meet at a location other than a University facility; they are considered an “on-campus” student if any or all of their courses meet at a University facility.

Retention Rate: Number of new beginning freshmen who return for their second fall semester divided by the original cohort.

Semester: A semester at Illinois State is the 16-week academic session offered each fall and spring. The summer session is not considered a semester.

Show Rate: Ratio of students who enrolled compared to the number who were accepted.

Transfer Student: Students who previously attended one or more semesters at a community or four-year college after graduating from high school (whether or not any course work was completed).

Unclassified Students: A person who desires to take classes at the University without working toward a specific degree.

Yield Rate: Ratio of the number of students who were accepted compared to the number of students that applied.

EMPLOYEE TERMS

Administrative/Professional: Appointments primarily for the purpose of mission support and include a wide range of responsibilities.

- Administrative (A): Employees with primary executive, administrative and managerial assignments. These assignments involve planning, organizing, managing and directing the university and its sub units with a reporting line of three levels from the President and a salary level of 55.

- Managerial (M): These employees are considered to be primary policy decision making administrators who report directly to the President or to one of the Vice Presidents of the University. This group would include the President, Vice Presidents, Deans and Associate Vice Presidents.

- Professional (P): All Administrative/Professional employees who are not designated as Administrative (A) or Managerial (M).

Civil Service: Civil Service positions are governed by the State Universities Civil Service System. Candidates must demonstrate their ability to perform by passing a test specifically designed for the job. Areas of Civil Service employment include professional, technical, clerical, crafts, and service. The civil service system has four classifications of employees:

- Exempt: Excluded from overtime provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act; typically managers and administrators.

- Non-Exempt: Paid by the hour and eligible for overtime under provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

- Negotiated: Civil Service employees belonging to a union with a negotiated contract.

- Extra Help: Hired to work without benefits for a limited time (up to 900 hours) and without requirement of a civil service examination.

Emeritus: Retired faculty with rank who continue employment at Illinois State University are accorded the privilege of retaining their professorial title after retirement with the added designation of the word "emeritus" or "emerita."

Faculty: Any Tenure-Track or Non-Tenure Track appointment, ranked or unranked, for the purpose of instruction, organized research, and/or public service in one of the academic (credit hour producing) departments and related areas.

Departmental: Faculty teaching in an academic department.

Non-departmental: Faculty in a non-academic department such as University College instructors.

Lab School Associates: Appointments that do not hold rank in an academic department and are assigned primarily to Thomas Metcalf School or University High School.

Library Faculty: Can hold academic rank and are assigned primarily to the Library.

Full-time: A work schedule of 37.5 to 40 hours per week; considered to be 100 percent.

EMPLOYEE TERMS (CONTINUED)

Minorities: Excludes White, Not Reported and Non-Resident Alien. Following IPEDS and the Department of Education categories.

Non-Tenure Track: Appointments for full and part-time positions are for a specific purpose and for a specified period of time appropriate to that purpose. No time served in any of the non-tenure track titles counts toward fulfillment of a probationary period leading to tenure.

Part-time: A work schedule of less than 100 percent.

Tenure: Tenure is an important means of protecting the rights of members of the faculty to freedom of inquiry, research, discourse, teaching, learning, and publications. Tenure entails the faculty member's obligation to strive continuously to improve competence and to cooperate with colleagues in an effort to improve the quality of scholarship and teaching at the institution. The freedom and security provided through academic tenure are fundamental to the success of a university in fulfilling its obligations. After the expiration of a probationary period, faculty have permanent or continuous tenure, and their service should be terminated only for adequate cause, except in the case of retirement for age, or under extraordinary circumstances because of financial exigencies.

Tenured/Tenure Track: Tenure is granted by the University under the authority granted to the President by the Board of Trustees. Tenure appointments are held only in academic departments or similar academic units.

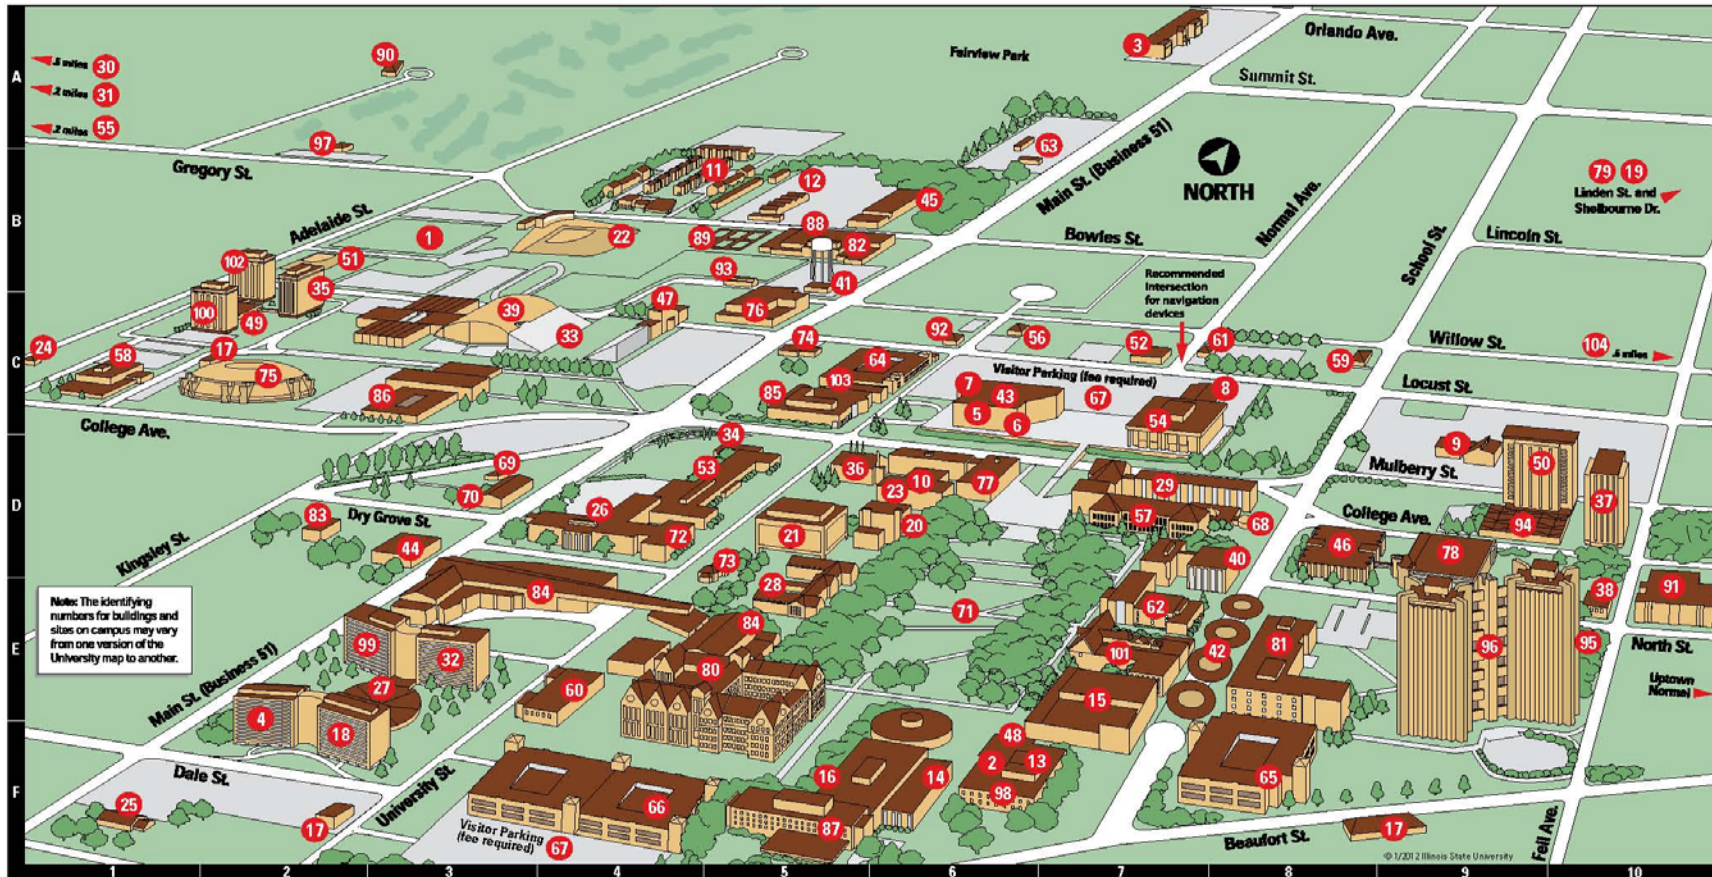

Rank: The academic ranks that are conferred for tenure at Illinois State University are: Professor, Associate Professor, and Assistant Professor. Promotion within the academic ranks is recommended by the Provost to the President for approval.

OTHER TERMS

IBHE: Illinois Board of Higher Education, the statewide planning and coordinating board for higher education in Illinois, approves/reviews degree programs, provides budget recommendations to the Governor and General Assembly, administers a variety of grant programs, approves operating authority for independent institutions, engages in master planning, and maintains comprehensive higher education databases.

IPEDS: The Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System conducted by National Center of Education Statistics (NCES). IPEDS began in 1986 and involves annual data collections. Survey data are required from all postsecondary institutions that have a Program Participation Agreement (PPA) with the Office of Postsecondary Education, U.S. Department of Education. IPEDS also requests limited data from approximately 3,000 other schools offering postsecondary education programs.
