January 2015

Dear Colleague:

I am pleased to present the 26th annual FactBook prepared by the Planning, Research and Policy Analysis office. The FactBook contains a collection of useful information designed to answer frequently asked questions about Illinois State University – Illinois' first public university.

Much has changed since Illinois State University opened its doors to students in 1857. The University first conferred undergraduate degrees in 1860, began offering master's degree programs in 1943 and introduced doctoral work in 1962. Currently, the University offers 71 undergraduate programs, 44 master's programs, 10 doctoral programs, a Specialist in School Psychology and 9 graduate level certificates. In fiscal year 2014, the University conferred 4,455 undergraduate degrees and 837 graduate degrees. A total of 20,615 students were enrolled last fall (on-and-off-campus) – 87.6 percent of whom were enrolled in undergraduate programs.

While the University has undergone many changes, our core values have remained steadfast. These values – pursuit of learning and scholarship, individualized attention, diversity, integrity, and civic engagement – remain the foundation for everything we do. The goals articulated in the University's strategic plan, Educating Illinois, emanate from these values, and collectively focus the institution on the actions necessary to be a national leader for educating high-achieving, motivated students who seek an individualized and transformative experience. Data provided in the FactBook show that the University is attracting academically prepared students, and that our students are continuing and completing their education at historic rates.

I encourage you to use this publication to familiarize yourself with the basic facts about Illinois State University.
